Tell us what inspires or drives you?

Nature's ability to be so resilient and to continuously provide despite adversities inspires us. This resilience motivates us to play an active role in ensuring a long-lasting environment that is meant for the people to enjoy, regardless of background, religion, gender or age group.

Name one essential trait of a founder and tell us why.

Perseverance because there will be many hurdles along the way that will require mental strength and creative ingenuity before arriving at innovative solutions. As a design studio that is fully committed to holistically transform society, it also takes time and effort to change mindsets.
